Abstentions and absences should not be counted as votes. Abstentions and absences are neither positive nor negative votes; they are simply no vote at all. For purposes of determining whether a matter passed, the Clerk-Treasurer must tally the number of yes votes.

Unless otherwise specified by state law, a majority of the totally authorized voting power of the board must vote yes for the matter to pass.

GENERAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

The Mayor presides at the meeting. In the Mayor's absence, the Deputy Mayor presides.

The presiding officer may debate, make motions, and take any other action that other Board members may take.

Board members are not required to rise but must be recognized by the presiding officer before making motions and speaking.

Motions require a second before discussion.

A member, once recognized, may not be interrupted when speaking unless it is to call him/her to order. If a member is called to order, they must cease speaking until the question of order is determined. If the member is in order, he may proceed.

A member may not be limited in the number of times he speaks on a question.

Motions to close or limit debate require a supermajority vote.

The floor will be opened up to comment from the public, prior to the Board's discussion. Depending on the number of people who wish to speak on an item, the presiding officer may establish a standard time limit of three minutes, or other similar time frame.

After discussion of a motion has been completed, one of the following actions is acceptable:

- The member who made the motion may withdraw the motion;
- Any member may amend the motion;
- If the motion to amend the motion has been seconded, the presiding officer will call for a vote on the motion to amend the motion;
- Any member may make a motion to table an item;
- In the event that a motion to table an item has been made and seconded, the presiding officer will call for a vote on such motion to table;

- Unless it has been tabled, the presiding officer will then call for a vote on the motion.

GUIDELINES FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

The public may speak only during the meeting's public comment periods.

Speakers must be recognized by the presiding officer.

Speakers must step to the front of the room.

Speakers must give their name, address and organization, if any.

During the periods for Communication to the Board, the presiding officer may require speakers to limit their remarks to three minutes, or other similar time frame, on a given topic. Speakers may not yield any remaining time they may have to another speaker.

There may be a time limit on speakers during the public comment periods on specific items up for discussion before the Board, depending on the number of people who wish to speak on a specific subject. Generally, if the number of people who wish to speak on a specific topic is five (5) or more people, at the discretion of the Mayor, time limits of three minutes per person, or other similar time frame, may be applied to each speaker.

During Public Hearings, there will be no time limit on speakers unless there are many individuals who wish to address the Board. (See next bullet.)

The presiding officer may, at his/her discretion, enact a time limit on all speakers especially during meetings where it appears that many individuals wish to address the Board.

Board members may, with the permission of the presiding officer, interrupt a speaker during their remarks, but only for the purpose of clarification or information.

All remarks must be addressed to the Board as a body and not to individual Board members or members of the audience.

The presiding officer may, at his/her discretion, limit the number of times a speaker may address the Board during a single meeting.

Speakers must observe the commonly accepted rules of courtesy, decorum, dignity and good taste.

The presiding officer must announce whether limits on the number of speakers and/or time limits for speakers will apply for a public comment period prior to the first public speaker being recognized. The presiding officer may poll the public prior to a public comment period starting in order to ascertain the number of people wishing to speak.

Following the Communications to the Board I, Board members will be afforded the opportunity to make comments.

Interested parties may submit written communications to the Board.

ADJOURNMENT

Meetings must be adjourned by motion and vote of the Board.

AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

The foregoing procedures may be amended from time to time by a majority vote of the Board.
